(SKEYES/IFEX) 11 February 2011 – A group of journalists was subjected to an attack while covering a protest in Zyban city, southern Jordan, demanding a change in the Jordanian government. Jordanian cameraman Eyad al-jaghbeer and other journalists were beaten by unknown individuals who also damaged their cameras.

SKeyes Center for Media and Cultural Freedom strongly condemns the attacks that the journalists were subjected to and demands that the Jordanian government open an investigation in order to punish the attackers.
